Salzburg, Melk and Vienna

---

Day 1

Flight

Overnight flight to Europe.

Day 2

Salzburg

Willkommen in Österreich! Upon arrival you will be met by your tour escort and bus driver. Transfer to the centre of Salzburg, the city of Mozart and Sound of Music.

Salzburg is a famed tourist resort, music centre and seat of the archbishopric of Salzburg, the city enjoys a unique combination of geographical and architectural beauty. Originally a Roman trading post, Salzburg became a powerful ecclesiastical principality of southern Germany by the 8th-century. In early modern times it provided an avenue for the entry of Italian cultural influences into Austria. The city's baroque architecture still exhibits this mixed Italian-German influence.

Upon arrival enjoy a musical walking tour including a visit of Mozart's Birthplace. Here you can see the violin he played when he was five.
Dinner and overnight in Salzburg.

Day 3

Salzburg

After breakfast this morning visit Schloss Hellbrunn, the 17th-century palace built by Archbishop Marcus Sitticus as a summer residence where you can walk through the gardens, beautiful fountains and see the "mechanical" theatre which has got 113 figures which are set in motion by the action of the water to the music of an organ, and fountains suddenly shower the unwary visitor. After your visit return to Salzburg.

In the afternoon possible recital in for example the Salzburger Dome (choirs only) or a possible performance in one of the many Tiroler towns near Salzburg where visiting music groups are always appreciated. Dinner and overnight in Salzburg.

Day 4

Salzburg

This morning following breakfast you have a spectacular visit of the Salzburg Salt mines. Salt is what gave the city and state its name. Prince Archbishop Wolf Dietrich converted the long-known treasure from within the mountain into ready cash in order to finance the construction of Salzburg's baroque city centre.

Have the afternoon at leisure to explore this wonderful city on your own. Dinner and overnight in Salzburg.

Day 5

Salzburg – Melk – Vienna

In the morning transfer to Vienna via Melk for a guided visit of the beautiful Benedictine Abbey which overlooks the Danube River. The Abbey of Melk, built on the river bank of the Danube, has a fine baroque facade and an extensive library of manuscripts. Possible informal performance to be arranged in the Abbey (choirs only). Continue on to Vienna after the visit. Before arriving at your hotel visit the Central Cemetery where among many others Beethoven, Schubert and Strauss are buried. Dinner and overnight in Vienna.

Vienna

Vienna is a city that needs to be explored, for many of its charms are hidden in narrow old side streets and ancient courtyards. There are 17th-century houses and quaint baroque squares tucked in all corners of the city. Every district boasts of houses where Beethoven, Mozart, Mahler or one of the Strausses lived.

This morning enjoy a guided sightseeing tour of the city including the State opera, Ringstrasse, Strauss Monument. In the afternoon possible performance in for example in the Baroque St. Peter's church or the Gothic Votiv church.

Dinner and overnight in Vienna.

Vienna

This morning visit the Schönbrunn Palace, the fabulous baroque summer residence of the Hapsburg Emperors. Here Marie-Antoinette lived as a young girl. The rococo interior is recreated as it was at its zenith. Also, stroll through the beautiful gardens filled with flowers and statues. Possible (informal) performance in front of the grand stairs of the Palace. In the afternoon you have some leisure time. You can for example visit Hotel Sacher where you can enjoy and taste the famous Sacher torte or visit the Mozart museum.

Farewell dinner and overnight in Vienna.
